Set on the ancient crossroads between Arabia and the Mediterranean Sea, Jordan is full of historic sites. Crusaders’ forts along old trade routes and ancient cities carved from stone will captivate anyone in search of the past.

The ancient rose-colored city of Petra is a UNESCO World Heritage site, one of the Middle East’s greatest historical and architectural treasures and one of the New Seven Wonders of the World. Carved from solid ruddy-red sandstone more than 2,000 years ago, it is unlike anything you have ever seen.

In contrast, Amman, Jordan’s capital and largest city, is modern and sprawling. At the bottom of the city’s many hills and overlooked by the magisterial Citadel, you can find spectacular Roman ruins, an international-standard museum and the hubbub of mosques, souqs and coffeehouses that are central to Jordanian life.
