A Taste of Tuscany Post-Cruise | June 9-12, 2019

Silver Whisper

American Board of Trial Advocates™

Dear DRI Friends,

Cindy and I are excited for this opportunity to invite DRI members to join us for the 2019 ABOTA International Meeting. We fell in love with the Mediterranean during our first ABOTA International Meeting and vowed to return to some of our favorite ports and explore new ones.

We start in Barcelona with its renowned architecture, home to Gaudi, the extraordinary Sagrada Familia, Miro, Picasso's early years, fine dining, tapas bars, and vibrant nightlife. Arrive at your leisure and spend a few days exploring this magnificent city before we set sail on an exciting cruise.

Embarking from Barcelona on the elegant Silver Whisper for a fabulous 7-night cruise, we sail to Valencia and discover its mix of old and new, great central park and world-famous paella. Then, we are on to Palma de Mallorca for its stunning scenery and famous pearls. Next, we will enjoy a relaxing day at sea, taking advantage of our luxurious ship and its amenities amongst friends with a special evening of dinner and dancing while cruising to spend the following two days in the French Riviera gems of Saint Tropez and Monte Carlo. The last stop is our favorite seaport town of Portofino. Stroll along fishing villages and relish unmatched pesto, delicious seafood and refreshing Italian wines and spritzers. We then sail to Civitavecchia (Rome) to end the cruise but hope you stay with us for a few more days for A Taste of Tuscany.

Disembarking at Civitavecchia, we depart to Florence (Firenze), in the heart of Tuscany, with a stop for lunch at the famous Piazza del Campo in Siena, a World Heritage Site. Romantic Florence is an art historian's dream and where we spend the next three nights. Take in the incredible city views during our rooftop reception on the first night. Taste the many different wines from the region with our Tuscany winery visit. Optional side trips will also be available and will allow you to further explore the surrounding area to appreciate its delightful cuisine, charms, Chiantis and Super Tuscans. Our final farewell dinner will be a feast of all things Tuscan. We hope you will join us for an unforgettable escape!

With warmest regards,

Mike and Cindy Maguire
2019 ABOTA National President & First Lady

BARCELONA

May 30-June 2, 2019

Barcelona, the cosmopolitan capital of Spain's Catalonia region, is an enchanting seaside city with boundless culture, defined by quirky art and architecture, imaginative food and vibrant street life. Its restaurant scene, anchored by the central Boqueria market, ranges from fine dining to tiny tapas bars.

Barcelona's architectural treasures span 2000-plus years. Towering temple columns, ancient city walls and subterranean stone corridors provide a window into Roman-era Barcino. Fast forward a thousand years to the Middle Ages by taking a stroll through the shadowy lanes of the Gothic Quarter, past tranquil plazas and soaring 14th-century cathedrals. In other parts of town bloom the sculptural masterpieces of Modernisme, a mix of ingenious and whimsical creations for which this city is so well known such as La Sagrada Familia Cathedral with its newly completed Interior and other pieces by Gaudi's architectural contemporaries.

The night holds limitless possibilities in Barcelona. Start with sunset drinks from a panoramic terrace or dig your heels in the sand at a rustic beachside chiringuito. As darkness falls, live music transforms the city: the rapid-fire rhythms of flamenco, brassy jazz spilling out of basements, and hands-in-the-air indie-rock at vintage concert halls. Take a walk through Barcelona, and you'll see that every street has its own unique story to tell.

"The world is a book and those who do not travel read only one page."

MEDITERRANEAN CRUISE

June 2-9, 2019

VALENCIA is thriving with its cultural, dining and nightlife scenes. It's home to paella and some of the liveliest festivals. The Old Town is always buzzing, from the stunning cathedral to Mercado Central. Content with Madrid and Barcelona grabbing the headlines, Spain's third largest city is low-key and wonderfully inviting and pleasant thanks to the city's innovative design to divert its flood-prone river to the outskirts of town and convert the riverbed into a long, winding park through the city.

PALMA DE MALLORCA is a stunner of a port. Year-round sunny weather and dazzling seaside scenery makes it one of the largest, most popular and, without a doubt, the swankiest of Spain's Balearic Islands. The Gothic Cathedral is located in the geographical heart of the city with medieval streets, lined with shops, galleries, restaurants and homes, all around it. Aside from its turquoise-blue seas, lush green foliage, rugged mountains and picturesque villages, Mallorca is also famous for its pearls and leather goods. For the active and adventurous, there are scenic paths and trails for a light stroll or a rigorous hike.

SAINT-TROPEZ went from a sleepy fishing village to a sexy haven for the jet-set overnight thanks to Brigitte Bardot's visit in the 50s. Tropezians have never looked back since and have thrived on this image drawing the rich with their spaceship-sized yachts jostling for the millionaire moorings and the beautiful rubbing shoulders at the at the hottest beach clubs and bars in town. For those looking for a little solitude, there are quaint hillside villages to explore, shops to peruse and wines to taste while admiring the scenery below.

MONTE CARLO is one of six distinct neighborhoods of Monaco, the second-smallest country in the world (by size, Vatican City being the smallest) with the highest population density, nearly double that of Singapore. A nation passed along from one generation to the next in the Grimaldi dynasty that has spanned more than 700 years and shaped everything from the country's borders to its image. Monte Carlo may be small but it packs a punch with plenty of attitude. High-rollers and pleasure seekers flock here for the glamorous casinos, nightlife and sunny beaches.

PORTOFINO is enviably picturesque from any angle especially from its yacht-filled harbor looking up at the hills scattered with pastel-colored houses in all shapes and sizes. A favorite of Hollywood stars and European royalty since the 1950s, Portofino combines sleepy village charm with upscale shopping, fine dining and other pursuits of the jet-setting crowd. The food and wine in this region can simply be summed up as divine. No visit is complete without a thorough sampling of the famed pesto. In fact, pesto is so highly-regarded here that the Genoa airport authorities recently lifted the liquids ban to allow travelers to pack their precious cargo (pesto) in their carry-on bags without the fear of it being confiscated.

FLORENCE

June 9-12, 2019

Cradle of the Renaissance, romantic, enchanting and utterly irresistible, Florence (Firenze) is a place to feast on world-class art and gourmet Tuscan cuisine. Florence, capital of Italy's Tuscany region, is home to many masterpieces of Renaissance art and architecture. One of its most iconic sights is the Duomo, a cathedral with a terracotta-tiled dome engineered by Brunelleschi and a bell tower by Giotto. The Galleria dell'Accademia displays Michelangelo's "David" sculpture. The Uffizi Gallery exhibits Botticelli's "The Birth of Venus" and da Vinci's "Annunciation."

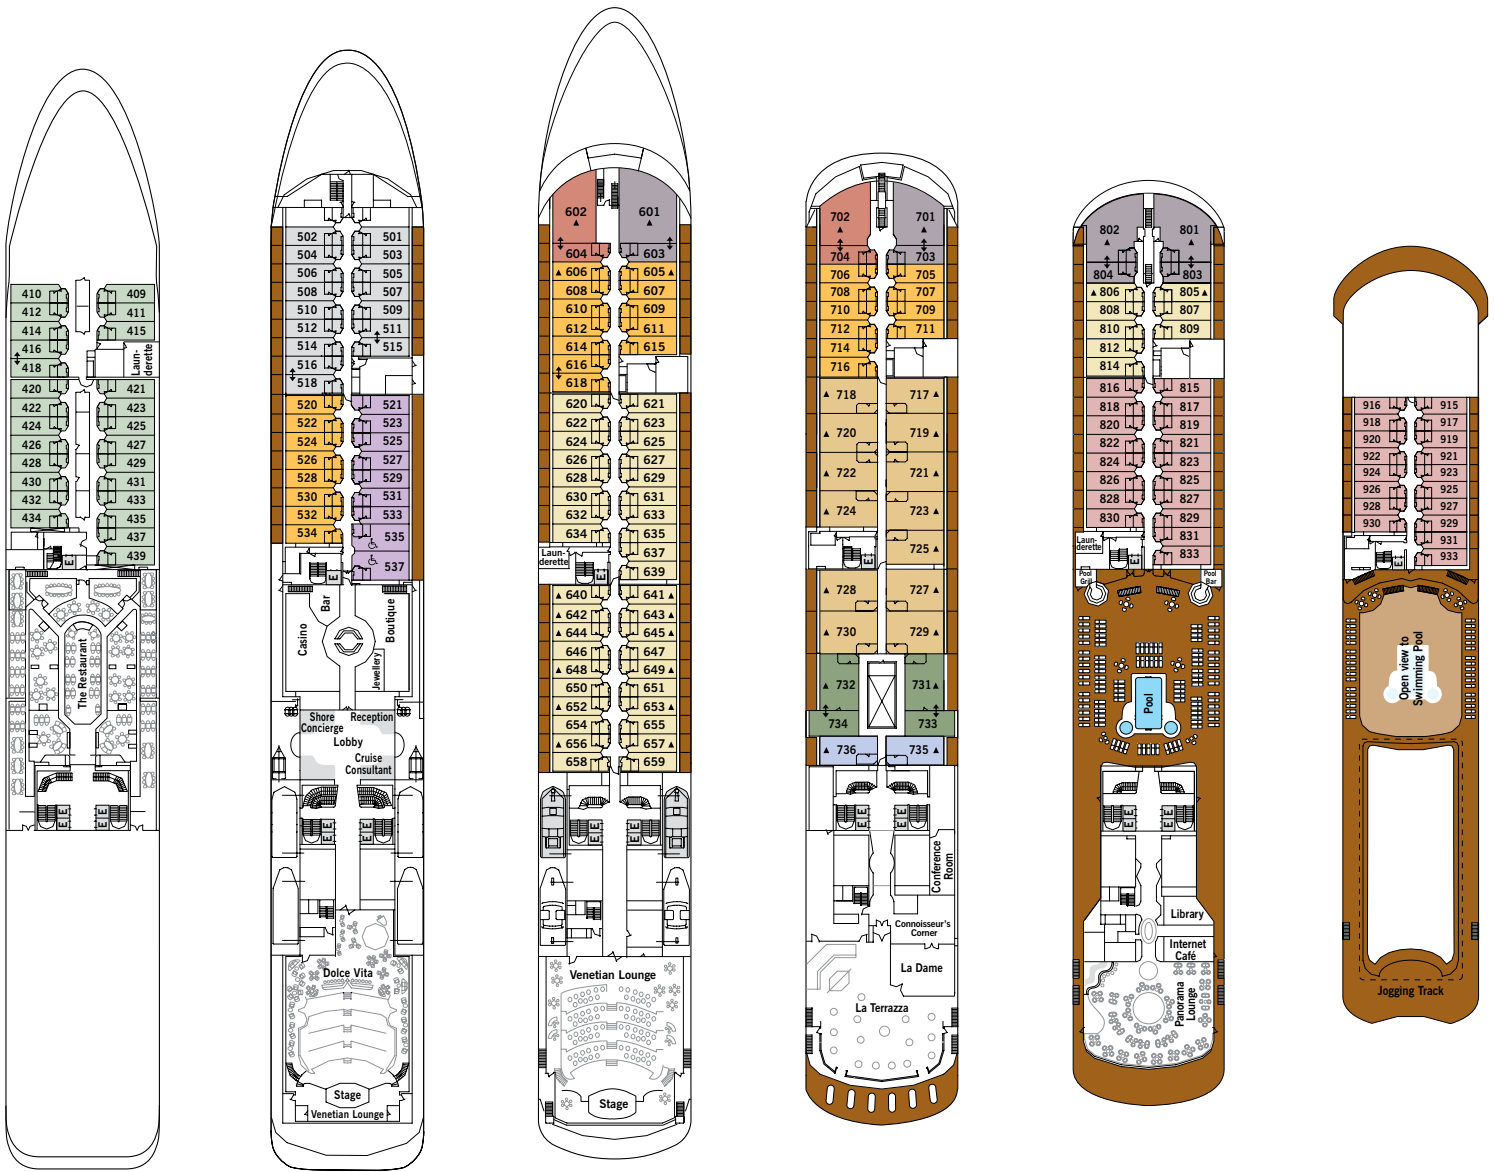

Few cities are so compact in size or so packed with extraordinary art and architecture masterpieces at every turn. The urban fabric of this small city, on the banks of the Arno river in northeastern Tuscany, has hardly changed since the Renaissance and its narrow cobble streets are a cinematic feast of elegant 15th- and 16th-century palazzi (palaces), medieval candle-lit chapels, fresco-decorated churches, marble basilicas and world-class art museums brimming with paintings and sculptures by Botticelli, Michelangelo et al. Unsurprisingly, the entire city center is a Unesco World Heritage site.

Stand on a bridge over the Arno several times in a day and the light and mood changes every time. At sunset, hike to Piazzale Michelangelo to be dazzled by a palette embracing every known shade of soft pink, orange and fiery amber. Surprisingly small as it is, Florence looms large on the world's 'must-sees' list – and not just for its unmatched treasure chest of art. Rich in culture, backdropped by history and anchored by family, faith and food, Florentine lifestyle is enviably sweet. Enjoy a go-slow afternoon passeggiata, indulge in an aperitivo at dusk, savour la dolce vita...the sweet life!
