SCHLOSS FLEESENSEE

SEPTEMBER 2-5, 2020

Dear Academy Family,

“Beauty is not simply something to behold; it is something one can do.” ... Toni Morrison

Love, laughter, and learning are the essence of beautiful memories.

We share all of these with our IATL Family through our travels with the Academy. Lifelong friendships are forged, new destinations are discovered, new life chapters are written. From African safaris to Viennese waltzes, each day on our International Trips brings renewed awareness that our world is united by nature, wonderful people, culture and adventure.

We are so honored to continue the tradition of the Academy by enriching your experiences with our specially curated Berlin, Amsterdam, and Belgium trip. Please share with us the beauty that we have discovered in these special places. We promise you smiles, laughter, lifelong memories and unique experiences that are only available to our IATL family.

We'll begin with a pre-trip outside of Berlin at Schloss Fleesensee...a hundred year old castle in a nature preserve and national forest. You'll relax, walk, run, golf, swim, spa and enjoy wonderful surroundings, food, and camaraderie as you adjust to the local time from your flights. Our first stop, thereafter, is Berlin – one of the world's great cities and a place that instantly drew us in. While there, we will enjoy the luxury of the Adlon Kempinski Hotel located at the Brandenburg Gate. The Reichstag will be our venue for a private event on the rooftop with all of Berlin before us. Museum Island, the Berlin Wall, Jewish Museum and other city sites, as well as a special trip to Potsdam, are all offered and included to enrich our experience.

We'll next travel by private plane to Amsterdam where we'll visit the Hague, cruise the canals, and enjoy fine dining. Activities include visits to the Rijksmuseum and Van Gogh museums, historic sites, and Academy Only events. Our hotel, the L'Europe, in the center of the city, is one of the jewels of Amsterdam. It is a place of wonderful people, fantastic food and great scenery.

Then, we're off to Belgium to visit Bruges and Brussels with a stop at Antwerp. We'll stay at the Hotel Dukes Palace in Bruges and the Hotel Amigo in the center of old town Brussels. This historical city is significant in both its cultural enrichment and historically momentous events. Our excursions will include tours of War Memorials, art museums, and fabulous statuary. As Brussels is the home to the European Union, a site visit to EU Headquarters will be offered. We'll visit the medieval city of Ghent, where the Treaty of Ghent was signed and the home of The Gothic Cathedral of St. Bavo and St Nicholas-two of the three famous towers of Ghent.

We hope you'll join us in an experience that has given us so much joy in planning. We have beautiful memories to create but as space is limited and we expect to fill up quickly, please register early for this most special trip!

Warmest regards,

Pat and Roman

GERMANY // SEPTEMBER 5-9, 2020

BERLIN

Ask Berliners what they love about the German capital and some will talk about the joys of post-Communist freedom, others about Kreuzberg's energetic nightlife, others about Friedrichshain's exciting young designers. Berlin can fill you with wonder, contemplating the future in the crystalline Reichstag and high-rise Potsdamer Platz, and with emotion, revisiting the past at the Jewish Museum and remnants of the Berlin Wall. The nostalgic, the party lover, the trendsetter, today's Berlin is one city, many characters - different every time you look but never looked at indifferently.

Eight times the size of Paris, Berlin does not lack for things to do. This reunited city's treasures include Norman Foster's panoramic glass-domed Reichstag (German Parliament), the historic Brandenburg Gate and UNESCO-listed Museum Island's galleries, where Egypt's Queen Nefertiti hides. Trace Berlin's turbulent past at the Libeskind-designed Jewish Museum and walk the artiest stretch of Wall at the East Side Gallery.

The fall of the Wall was the party of the 20th century, and even today Berlin still hasn't run out of steam. Glitzy 1920s cabaret lives on along Friedrichstrasse, while classical music rings out of Mitte's lavish concert halls like the neoclassical Staatsoper. Canal-side bars draw revelers to Kreuzberg and Friedrichshain. September evenings are best spent chatting and sipping foamy wheat beer under chestnut trees in Prenzlauer Berg's Prater Garten beer garden.

NETHERLANDS // SEPTEMBER 9-13, 2020

AMSTERDAM

This city, full of colorful homes, canals and bridges, is one of Europe's most picturesque capitals. You can't walk a mile without bumping into a masterpiece in the city. The Van Gogh Museum hangs the world's largest collection by tortured native son Vincent. A few blocks away, Vermeers, Rembrandts and other Golden Age treasures fill the glorious Rijksmuseum.

Two wheeling is a way of life here. It is how Amsterdammers commute to work, go shopping and meet a date for dinner. With all the bike rental shops around, it's easy to gear up and take a spin. If locals aren't on a bike, they may well be in a boat. With its canals and massive harbor, this city offers countless opportunities to drift. Hop in a canal boat or one of the free ferries behind Centraal Station for a wind-in-your-hair ride.

A day trip to The Hague, residence of the Dutch royal family and a true royal city by the sea, will afford sprawling palaces, coastal views, and a rich history all to be discovered.

Amsterdam is famously gezellig, a Dutch quality that translates roughly as convivial or cozy. It's more easily experienced than defined. There's a sense of time stopping, an intimacy of the here and now that leaves all your troubles behind, at least until tomorrow. You can get that warm, fuzzy feeling in many situations, but the easiest place is a traditional brown café. Named for their wood panelling and walls stained by smoke over the centuries, brown cafés practically have gezelligheid (coziness) on tap, alongside good beer. Few cities meld history with modern urban flair like Amsterdam.

BELGIUM // SEPTEMBER 13-17, 2020

BRUGES + BRUSSELS

One of the best-preserved medieval cities in Europe, Bruges has blossomed with romance and art. Picturesque cobbled lanes and dreamy canals link photogenic market squares lined with soaring towers, historical churches and lane after lane of old whitewashed almshouses. The city center is compact, and you'll find you can explore the best places in the city within walking distance from the Market Square (Grote Markt).

Bruges is a city that will capture your heart. It is a city of human proportions, but one that can never be truly fathomed. Its history has made it great, a fact that garnered it the title of a Unesco World Heritage City. Retaining the mysteries of the Middle Ages and unashamedly exuberant, Bruges has been an international metropolis for centuries.

Just 60 miles southeast of Bruges, Brussels boasts fine museums and Michelin-starred restaurants (the city claims more per capita than Paris), as well as some of the best classical music and opera in Europe.

The cityscape swings from majestic to quirky to rundown and back again. Art deco facades face off against 1960s concrete developments, and regal 19th-century mansions contrast with the shimmering glass of the EU's Gotham City. This whole maelstrom swirls out from Brussels' medieval core, where the Grand Place is surely one of the world's most beautiful squares.

Plus, a must-visit for anyone with a sweet tooth, both Bruges and Brussels are known for their chocolate, Belgian chocolate that is.
