Dining in Japan is a treat, offering extraordinary diversity, creativity, and adventurous ingredients. You can find fresh, delicious sushi and sashimi, but look out, too, for fantastic yakitori (skewered chicken), tempura (vegetables or seafood fried in a light batter), udon (thick wheat noodles), and much more.

DAY 2 | THURSDAY, APRIL 30, 2026 TOKYO, JAPAN

After crossing the International Dateline, arrive in Tokyo and transfer to your hotel. The remainder of your day is free to relax, explore, or rest after your long journey.

Even though Tokyo is among the largest, most frenetic cities in the world, it's still able to maintain a great deal of efficiency and charm. Amid the endless buzzing neon signs and the overhead cable webs, Tokyo is home to some of the world's most impressive architecture, stylish shops and 4-star restaurants. Sushi lovers will revel in Tokyo's offering of the famous dish. And the city's "Ramen Zones" serve up unique noodle dishes where slurping is encouraged. Visit the Tokyo Tower for heart-pounding panoramic views of the city way atop the 492-foot high Grand Observation Deck. And just a short distance outside of the clamor the city is a whole different world. In the surrounding small towns and villages you'll get a glimpse into Japan's rich culture and traditions. Here you'll discover scores of wooden residential homes, ancient temples, shrines and imperial gardens. From the frenzy-filled metropolis to the tranquil bonsai-tree-lined neighborhoods, Tokyo is truly a study in delightful contrast.

Overnight in Tokyo.

DAY 3 | FRIDAY, MAY 1, 2026 TOKYO, JAPAN

After breakfast, meet your guide and start your discovery of Tokyo. Start with Tsukiji Outer Market. It consists of a few blocks of wholesale and retail shops, as well as restaurants crowded along narrow lanes. Here you can find fresh and processed seafood and produce alongside food-related goods such as knives. Next you will visit the upmarket area of Ginza, with high-end shopping and home to a large number of department stores, boutiques, art galleries, restaurants, nightclubs, and cafes.

Continue to The Imperial Palace East Gardens, located on the former site of Edo Castle's innermost circles of defense. None of the main buildings remain today, but the moats, walls, entrance gates and several guardhouses still exist. Then make a quick stop at the Imperial Palace for photos. It is the residence of Japan's Imperial Family.

After an included lunch, you will visit Asakusa, where you'll find the Sensoji Temple, a very popular and colorful Buddhist temple. The legend says that in the year 628, two brothers fished a statue of Kannon, the goddess of mercy, out of the Sumida River, and even though they put the statue back into the river, it always returned to them. Consequently, Sensoji was built nearby for the goddess of Kannon. You'll take a walk along Nakamise Street lined with boutiques, souvenir shops and street food outlets.

Finally, you will visit Tokyo Sky Tree, a television broadcasting tower and landmark of Tokyo. With a height of 634 meters, it is the tallest structure in Japan and the second tallest in the world at the time of its completion. After the tour, return to your hotel before your group dinner this evening.
